Say Cheese! Premium Plant-Based Cheese Brand = Growth Opportunity

Premium plant-based cheese brand with validated market traction is available for sale.

Positioned within the high-growth dairy-free category, the brand has developed a loyal customer base and established presence across specialty retail, hospitality, and selected supermarket channels. Products are differentiated by premium flavour, texture, and visual presentation.

The business is currently operating within a lean, small-scale production model, presenting a clear opportunity for expansion through scaled manufacturing and broader distribution.

Highlights include strong gross margins (50% - 60%), efficient operations, focused SKUs, and significant growth potential.

Confidential opportunity. Further details available under NDA.
