This is a well-established neighbourhood foodmarket operating in Auckland, with consistent weekly sales and a loyal customer base built over many years.

The business is located in a practical retail setting with ample customer parking, supporting strong convenience-driven trade. Current performance provides a stable foundation for a new owner, with further potential available through operational efficiencies, merchandising, and local area engagement.

The opportunity is suited to a hands-on owner-operator seeking a proven business with reliable turnover rather than a speculative start-up.

Further details available to qualified buyers on enquiry.
