Rodney Wayne & shampoo 'n' things: Change the Story - Own Your Future

Rodney Wayne invites you to be part of an iconic New Zealand brand built on exceptional customer experiences and a philosophy of We Listen. We Care.

For the right owner, this is a chance to step into a proven, award-winning franchise system and build a business you're proud of, with the backing of an experienced support team and a network of like-minded franchisees.

Julie Evans (CEO) sums it up beautifully:

"We are proud to be a brand leader in the hair service and retail industry for our customers and franchisees. We do this by having a talented and committed team of franchisees, who are well supported to achieve business and lifestyle success."

Rodney Wayne franchisees come from a wide range of backgrounds. What they share is strong people skills, a genuine customer focus, and the confidence to lead and grow a business.

You don't need to be a hairdresser - if you can build a team, manage performance, and create an outstanding client experience, Rodney Wayne provides the systems, training and ongoing support to help you succeed.

A key point of difference is shampoo 'n' things - a dedicated retail offering that complements the salon and creates an additional revenue stream, strengthening the overall business model.

Opportunities are available nationwide, including both new territory development and the chance to step into well-established businesses.
