

2-Way Radio Communications Business for Sale Business for Sale Bay of Plenty

Multiple Income Streams from sales, service, hire & installations. No prior industry experience or technical skills are required.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a well-established and highly respected 2-way radio communications business based in the Bay of Plenty region. With an average annual turnover exceeding $1.5 million and strong recurring revenue streams, the business offers stability, profitability, and significant future growth potential.

The company has built a strong reputation for delivering reliable communication solutions across a broad range of industries that rely on critical communication systems. Supported by an experienced team, proven systems, and an expanding digital network, the business is recognised as a trusted provider within the industry.

While an interest in technology would be an advantage, no prior industry experience or technical skills are required. The business is well suited to a range of buyers, including investors, owner-operators, or those seeking to enter a dynamic industry where modern 2-way radio systems increasingly integrate with a wide range of technologies including GPS tracking, telemetry, data networks, cloud-based dispatch systems, and digital communications platforms. The current owners will provide purchaser with support and training as required.
