Columbus Coffee. New North Shore Cafe!

Some hospitality brands need no introduction. Columbus Coffee is one of them.

This is a rare opportunity to secure a brand-new Columbus Coffee franchise in a premium North Shore location - and importantly, to build something of your own from day one.

New sites done properly are where serious upside lives.

You're not inheriting someone else's problems. You're stepping into a proven system, backed by one of New Zealand's most established cafe brands, and executing it your way - from day one, with modern fit-out, fresh energy and a clean runway.

The fundamentals here are strong.

- * High-profile positioning.
- * Consistent foot traffic.
- * A customer base already present and spending.

Just as importantly, the price point has been structured intelligently.

The $300,000 asking price includes the full set-up cost, initial franchise fee, franchisor legal fees and training - removing much of the uncertainty and additional capital typically associated with a new site.

Columbus Coffee brings the rest - brand recognition, structured systems, supplier networks and ongoing support that remove much of the guesswork.

For the right operator, this is more than just a cafe. It's the chance to build a high-performing hospitality business and realise the capital upside that comes with getting it right early.
