HEAT PUMP SUPPLY & INSTALLATION
Auckland

Heat Pump Supply & Install. Part-Time Profits of $139,000+

With $105,000 of forward work ready and about to enter the busy season, this business which is currently being run as a lifestyle business presents a seriously good opportunity for someone that wants that work life balance or for the individual that wants a solid foundation to sink their teeth into for growth and considerable return on investment.

You don't need to be from the industry or need to get on the tools to own this lifestyle business. The business has 2x experienced installation technicians and a team of support contractors when required, all you need to do is keep bringing in the sales and look after day to day management.

Business Highlights

- $139,000+ Profits to 1x part time working owner (currently working 4 hours a day)
- $105,000 of forward work in place
- 90% of revenue is driven from new installations
- Huge scope to build on the service side of the business
- Fully equipped vans and workshop tools ensures operational readiness for the new owners
- Huge growth opportunities for a proactive sales focused business owner

Winter demand already heating up! This is your chance to step into a business that is not just established, but perfectly timed.
