Simple Retail. Strong Income. $170K Surplus

Looking for a straightforward business that just makes sense? This established variety store in a major town delivers exactly that - simple retail, consistent sales, and real income from day one.

With average weekly sales of approximately $8,450 and a surplus of around $170,000, this is a business that rewards a hands-on owner. No complex systems, no specialist knowledge - just a proven model built on value, variety, and repeat customers.

The store offers a wide range of everyday household items, giftware, party products, and impulse buys - all sourced locally within New Zealand. That means no importing headaches, just a clean, manageable supply chain and a business you can focus on running.

Located in a well-established catchment area, the business benefits from steady local demand and strong community support, alongside the lifestyle appeal Hawke's Bay is known for.

The fit-out is practical, the layout is customer-friendly, and the operation is easy to understand. This is exactly the type of business that suits an owner-operator, couple, or family looking for income, control, and simplicity. Key Highlights:

- * Weekly sales approx. $8,450 (incl. GST)
- * Surplus approx. $170,000
- * Asking $340,000 + stock
- * Simple, proven retail model
- * Locally sourced products
- * Strong lifestyle location

A practical, income-producing business with nothing complicated about it - just good, honest retail. Asking $340,000 plus stock $150,000
