

Digital Signage Advertising Franchise for Sale Nelson

DOOH Advertising Business with Existing Network, No Staff, Proven Model, High Growth Potential

Shoptalk is New Zealand's leading out-of-home entertainment and advertising network, placing digital screens in high-traffic venues. The Nelson Tasman territory offers an existing network of screens and venues with strong growth potential through reactivation and client acquisition. The model is simple, with no staff required and a cloud-based system that allows easy remote management. Revenue is generated by selling advertising to local businesses, creating a recurring income stream. Full training, systems, and ongoing support are provided, making this an ideal opportunity for an owner-operator to rebuild and scale a proven model.
