Auckland Pest Control. 40 Year History & Owner Profits of $217,000+

You seldom see businesses with a 40-year track record of success come to market.

After exterminating millions of pests over four decades, this business has proven one thing above all else.. you simply can't exterminate a blue chip business like this one.

Having weathered and thrived through every economic cycle imaginable, this rock solid commercial pest control operation has built an exceptional reputation and a strong client base across the wider Auckland region.

Servicing a high-end base of commercial clients across the wider Auckland region, the business benefits from strong recurring monthly revenue, complemented by additional call-out work.

With the retiring vendors ready to hand over the reins, this acquisition presents an outstanding opportunity for an existing operator to secure immediate scale, territory expansion, and contracted cashflow from day one.
