“Most businesses ask you to believe the numbers. This one has a decade of proof.” No extra staff · Grain-to-glass operation

The hard work is already done. The brand is built, the shelves are stocked, supermarket groups, bars, restaurants, and liquor retailers are amongst their impressive customer base. The equipment runs grain-to-glass with full canning, kegging and bottling capability.

Beyond the numbers, this is a lifestyle business. Festivals, tastings, industry relationships, creative brewing freedom - this is not just an income, it's an identity. Growth isn't a pitch line. It's sitting there ready to go.

The premises include a well-configured brewery site with a fully consented 2-bedroom apartment upstairs - live onsite or generate additional rental income. As an additional investment, there is an option to purchase the full Property Freehold (subject to negotiation).
