Established for 17 years. Strong resilience during Covid and down turns. Potential to increase business.

Looking for a unique business for sale in Glenorchy? Here's your chance to take over an established vehicle relocation service for hikers that has been successfully operating for 17 years. This transport and automotive venture has shown strong resilience during the Covid pandemic and various downturns.

With the business streamlined to offer 6 months on, 6 months off, you'll have ample time to enjoy the stunning outdoor opportunities that our beautiful region offers. There's also plenty of potential to increase business, making this an exciting challenge for anyone who enjoys problem solving.

With the asking price being negotiable, this home-based business opportunity is both practical and rewarding. Ready to explore this new venture? Contact us today to discuss how you can take the helm of this thriving operation.
