Far North IT Consultancy and Implementation Specialists Now For Sale - (CML 11564)

- Business IT support
- Phone and Internet
- Website Development
- Supplies technology setup hardware and software
- Generally covering the upper Northland area

The current working owner has an opportunity overseas so is keen to move the sale along.

The business carries out physical Wi-Fi installations, wireless networking, desktop support including domain names, network engineering and structured cabling management.

The owner advises he is only working approximately 25 hours per week due to other business commitments. There is plenty of room for improvement and potential growth.

Price now reflects the owners desire for a quick sale. $165,000 plus stock of approximately $5,000.

This business could suit a first time business buyer or could equally suit as an add-on to an existing business portfolio.
