Popular Halal Franchise - Kebab & Fried Chicken

Few fast-food opportunities come with this combination: a franchise backed by an expanding New Zealand brand, Halal certification, a lease secured to 2038, and weekly revenue of $14,000 to $15,000.

The business operates from a high-foot-traffic retail complex with strong car parking and complementary neighbouring tenants, trading seven days across dine-in, takeaway, and two delivery platforms. Halal certification opens the business up to a large and loyal national consumer base. The franchise model provides brand infrastructure, centralised marketing, and ongoing head office product development, so the incoming owner steps into a proven operational framework rather than building from scratch.

- * $14,000 to $15,000 weekly revenue across multiple channels
- * Rent: $1101.70 including OPEX & Water + GST Per Week
- * Halal certified with broad national consumer appeal
- * Lease to September 2038
- * Franchise support: branding, marketing, and product development included
- * Dine-in, takeaway, and delivery across two platforms
- * High-traffic location with ample on-site parking
- * Growing brand network increasing recognition across New Zealand.

This suits a hands-on owner-operator or an experienced hospitality buyer looking for a structured, supported entry into an expanding franchise. The systems are in place and the opportunity is there to grow within them.
