

Profitable Service Business with Established Systems, Loyal Customers and Strong Industry Relationships

This established service business has built a strong reputation over many years, delivering essential services to both residential and commercial customers. Operating in a resilient market, it benefits from a loyal customer base, recurring work, long-standing commercial relationships, and experienced staff supported by proven systems and processes. The business generates consistent revenue with opportunities to increase profitability through geographic expansion, additional service offerings, and operational efficiencies. Well positioned for an owner-operator or strategic buyer, the business offers stable cash flow, and significant potential for future growth. Further information is available to qualified purchasers upon signing a confidentiality agreement.

Business Resources

The business is supported by an experienced team, established operating systems, specialised equipment, and well-maintained leased premises. Comprehensive procedures, supplier relationships, and technology enable efficient day-to-day operations. The current owner is willing to provide a structured handover and transitional support to ensure a smooth transfer of knowledge, customer relationships, and business continuity.
