Franchise Network Opportunity - Established Coffee Brand

An exceptional opportunity to acquire the master franchise rights for an established and growing New Zealand franchise network in the coffee industry.

This opportunity provides the successful purchaser with the ability to acquire the rights to develop, support, and expand an established franchise system with proven operating procedures, recognised branding, and an existing network of franchisees.

The business offers a scalable model with multiple revenue streams, including ongoing franchise-related income, supported by established systems, supplier relationships, and a proven framework for growth.

Key investment highlights include:

- Established New Zealand franchise brand
- Existing franchise network and proven business model
- Recurring revenue potential through franchise operations
- Comprehensive systems, procedures, and franchise support structure
- Significant opportunity for further national expansion
- Suitable for an experienced operator, investor, or strategic buyer seeking a scalable franchise opportunity

This is a unique opportunity to acquire a platform with the foundations already established and the potential to drive the next phase of growth across New Zealand.

Asking $1,100,000

Operation Surplus $265,000
