

Online Service Business for Sale NZ Wide

Recurring Revenue, Relocatable Online Business

A fully relocatable online business generating recurring weekly revenue, with a loyal customer base in place. Its lean model can be run from anywhere in New Zealand, with income built on repeat, ongoing engagement.

This business delivers personalised, one on one service to customers across New Zealand. Since new ownership in 2025, it has run a structured, specialist led model built around individual support and regular progress reporting.

A team of six to seven contract specialists delivers over 70 sessions each week, engaged per session rather than as employees. Growth has come through digital advertising alongside strong referral and word of mouth networks, with most customers engaging weekly for consistent, repeat income. A new owner has clear scope to build further through additional service lines, a broader offering, group sessions, or growing the specialist team.

Key strengths:

- * Fully relocatable, online operating model
- * Recurring weekly customer base providing consistent income* Experienced team of six to seven contract specialists in place
- * Lean cost structure, with specialists engaged per session* Strong referral and word of mouth pipeline
- * National reach across New Zealand* Simple structure suited to remote management

This suits an owner operator comfortable managing a small specialist team remotely, a sector buyer looking to add scale, or an entrepreneurial buyer keen to grow a lean, portable business with a loyal customer base. The operating model gives a new owner genuine flexibility over where and how the business is run.

An online business with recurring weekly income and genuine portability is a rare combination.
