Currently operated by one working owner, the business has a lean and straightforward operating model. Much of its earlier success was built around a simple, focused dumpling offering, demonstrating the broad appeal of the core product. It could suit an experienced hospitality operator or someone new to the industry who is passionate about food and ready to run their own business.

While generating good profit there is plenty of scope for a new owner to build on the existing foundation, develop the offering and take the business to the next level.

The vendor is motivated to sell, creating an excellent opportunity for the right buyer to take over an established business with genuine potential.â€”Enquire now to find out more.
