

Profitable Conveyancing Practice

Looking to lead a CONVEYANCING practice with documented systems and national reach?

This established conveyancing practice serves clients across New Zealand and can be operated from anywhere in the country, with no lease in place. FY2026 turnover was $526,050. Owner earnings were $312,309 FY2026.

Key Strengths:

- * Well-established practice.
- * Easily relocated as there is no lease
- * National reach, serving clients across New Zealand
- * Documented systems, with standardised precedents
- * Owner earnings of $312,309 FY2026

The business has one working owner and one legal assistant. Neither will remain after the sale. The purchaser must be a lawyer authorised to practise on their own account or a conveyancing practitioner. The incoming team will take on legal oversight, compliance, trust account supervision and file administration. Documented processes and standardised precedents provide the working framework.

Growth could come from broader legal services, wider digital reach, stronger referral partnerships and team expansion.

This is an established practice with a documented operating framework.
