

Olive Grove Business for Sale Carterton

Leafyridge Olives is a commercial olive oil venture combining an award-winning grove, modern processing facilities, multiple income streams, and a beautiful family home in a sought-after Wairarapa location.

Set amongst the fertile soils of East Taratahi in the Wairarapa, this outstanding grove features approximately 4,000 mature olive trees across nearly 13 hectares, producing premium extra virgin olive oils that have earned numerous industry accolades.

The onsite olive mill provides complete control over processing quality while also generating additional revenue. The recent acquisition of a commercial harvester has further strengthened operational independence, enhanced operational efficiency and created a further opportunity for income generation.

With a strong brand, proven profitability, sustainable growing practices and scope for expansion, Leafyridge is well positioned for future growth while offering an enviable lifestyle.
