

Established Fashion Boutique Business for Sale Taupo

Established Fashion Boutique - Central Taupo

Own an established and growing fashion business in the heart of Taupo.

EM's Boutique is a successful consignment fashion retailer specialising in curated, pre-loved women's clothing, footwear, handbags and accessories.

Established in 2019, the business operates from a prominent central Taupo location and has developed a loyal customer following together with an impressive network of approximately 1,200 active consignors from Taupo and throughout New Zealand.

The consignment model provides a continually changing range of quality merchandise while significantly reducing the investment normally required to fund retail stock.

Business highlights include:

- * FY2026 revenue of approximately $345,000
- * FY2026 EBPITDA/SDE of approximately $124,000
- * Approximately 1,200 active consignors
- * Established central Taupo retail location
- * Proven consignment business model
- * Shopify website and established social media presence
- * Genuine opportunities to expand menswear and online sales
- * Comprehensive handover and training available

The business is predominantly store-based, with direct online sales currently representing only around 5% of sales. With Shopify and nationwide fulfilment already established, this provides a genuine opportunity for a new owner to further develop online and social selling alongside the successful retail operation.
