Home Staging Business for Sale Wellington

Creative Flair Meets Business Opportunity

Have an eye for interiors and a talent for bringing spaces to life? Sold on Staging offers the opportunity to apply your creative flair within an established Wellington home staging business. Working with homeowners and real estate agents across Greater Wellington, the business creates welcoming, individually styled interiors that help properties make a strong first impression. The service combines consultation, furniture selection, styling, delivery, installation, hire and collection, supported by an assembled collection of furniture, artwork, lighting, linen and accessories.

Business Resources

Business highlights:

- Established Wellington business identity and operating history.
- Curated rental collection for a range of property styles.
- Existing agent and customer relationships.
- Optional warehouse available for lease.
- Inventory, project management and accounting systems.
- Payment generally received before staging.
- Scope to grow agent referrals, partial staging and furniture hire.

Ideal for a creative working owner who enjoys interiors and client relationships, or an existing staging, interiors or furniture hire operator seeking additional stock and Wellington coverage.
