Recruitment Agency Business for Sale Central Otago

Thriving Recruitment Agency - A Rare Opportunity!

An opportunity to acquire an established recruitment agency with a proven operating model, longstanding client relationships and a strong foundation for future growth.

This owner-operated business has built its reputation on personalised service, industry knowledge and reliable recruitment support. Its established client base, candidate networks and repeat business provide an incoming owner with a platform to build upon.

Key business highlights:

* Established client relationships: A loyal customer base supported by repeat business & referrals.

* Proven business model: An established operation with demonstrated revenue & earnings.

* Systems & resources: Existing client and candidate databases, processes and digital assets.

* Growth opportunities: Potential to expand services, develop new clients and increase capacity.

An opportunity to build something of your own

This opportunity would particularly suit an experienced recruitment professional looking to transition into business ownership. With established client relationships, candidate networks and proven operating processes already in place, an incoming owner can focus on building the business rather than starting from scratch.

With established relationships, proven processes and opportunities to diversify and grow, this business offers an appealing entry point into recruitment business ownership.
