Scalable Digital Biz. $216K Cash Surplus. High Margins, Low Overheads

What if you could acquire a profitable digital agency with an established client base, recurring revenue and significant untapped growth potential?

This specialist website design and development agency has built an impressive reputation across New Zealand and internationally, achieving 59% revenue growth over two years, without spending a dollar on advertising!

With a loyal client base, experienced delivery team and streamlined operating model, the foundations are firmly in place for an ambitious new owner.

The numbers tell an impressive story:

• $216,468 FY2026 EBPITDA

• $361,463 annual revenue

• 110 established clients across multiple sectors

• 30% recurring revenue

• No premises or lease commitments

• Full order book and experienced contractors

And here's where it gets interesting...

Despite its strong performance, the business has been operated with a lifestyle focus, leaving several exciting growth opportunities largely unexplored.

For an existing digital agency, this could be an excellent strategic acquisition. For an entrepreneurial buyer with industry experience, it's an established platform ready for fresh energy and direction.

The clients are there. The systems are in place. The growth potential is waiting.
