Established Multi-Disciplinary Allied Health Clinic - Auckland

A well-established clinic in a growing Auckland community, with several sources of income.

- Access to a national rehabilitation group's referral network and contracts, subject to approval
- ACC accredited, with both ACC-funded and private clients
- Multiple treatment and consultation rooms in a modern medical centre
- Experienced clinical team with senior leadership in place
- Extra income from room rental
- Room to grow with spare space and more practitioners
- Extended handover and support from the vendor
- EBPITDA of approximately $248,000 for the year ended 31 March 2026.

The clinic is fully equipped, and day-to-day operations are run by an experienced clinical lead and an administration team. This supports an incoming owner to focus on growing the business.

Ideal for a business owner without a clinical background, or for an allied health operator looking to expand with a team and leadership already in place.

Asking price $590,000
