An Exciting Real Estate Business Opportunity!

Business for Sale Description

Independent NZ Real Estate Business for Sale Auckland

A Great Opportunity To Own An Established, Independent NZ Real Estate Business!

If you're looking for a branded business to make your own mark on, one that's established yet still has considerable potential for growth (including entry into wider markets), then this is the one opportunity that's not to be missed. You'll enjoy the financial successes & operational freedom this agency's team & well-developed systems offer & will be able to expand & grow your own nationwide agency to suit your business ambitions.

Business Overview:

- * An opportunity to own an established brand & real estate / business broking agency providing a full range of professional REA licensed agent services & which can be operated from your preferred New Zealand location.
- * The business operates on a franchise / licence model and currently has territory owners plus individual salespeople operating in select NZ locations. (The parent company receives ongoing sales' royalties from its franchisees and a direct share of the gross commission earned by its non-franchisee salespeople.)
- * The company's approach strives to be genuinely client-centric in its focus and the company's sales team members consistently earn significant plaudits and repeat / referral business from satisfied clients for their high levels of service.
- * The added advantage is outright ownership of the brand identity, intellectual property (including a franchise agreement and new website) plus a complete range of in-house systems for continued national expansion & which can readily be adapted & transferred for entry into overseas markets.

Products & Services Overview:

Real estate & business sales plus franchise sales & agent recruitment.

Facilities Overview:

Individual operators covering the following NZ regions:

Auckland, Northland, Bay of Plenty, Nelson.

The owners have been operating & building this business up for 15 years but are now preparing for retirement.
