Business for Sale Description

Wholesale and Import Business for Sale Auckland

This business has been in existence for nearly a century and in the present ownership for 15 years. It has solid, growing and sustainable revenues producing stable profits. It's customer base is gift stores, souvenir retailers and department stores throughout New Zealand.

The extensive product range is based on premium products including handbags, wallets, business cases, purses, and gifts for the fashion, corporate, travel gift and lifestyle markets.

The business could easily be set up to run from any location within New Zealand and could easily be run from a home base by an active owner with support from a part-time admin and warehouse person. Some storage space (approx 200 sq metres) will be required or this could be handled by a logistics company.

It could also be added into an existing wholesale business any where in New Zealand

The full price of $345,000 includes stock of $210,000.

Suppliers are well established with some exclusivity.

This is a great business with plenty of growth potential.
