Business for Sale Description

AgriBusiness Business for Sale Taranaki

No formal training or experience is needed as the franchisor provides full hands on training and industry related education to ensure each franchisee's success.

This well-established livestock pregnancy scanning franchise has been operating since 1994. The current owners have grown the business to its current position since 2000. This business is Taranaki based and well known in the farming industry. Situated among a large and prosperous diary cow farming community, there is no shortage of work while the vendor has already created an environment of competitive pricing and service, with proven systems and procedures already in place.

The business would suit an individual or a couple who are looking for a great lifestyle (wanting to get out of the rat race). Someone who loves working with animals and looks forward to a good remuneration package, plus the support of a successful franchisor helping you along your journey to success.

- For only a $125,000 investment, you can be the new owner of the following.
- Established business with a great reputation.
- Well-established client data base with repeat customers.
- Good work/ family balance – lots of time for friends, families, holidays.
- Great support from franchisor – training, website marketing and management.
