Business for Sale Description

Homestaging Design Business for Sale Auckland

Delivers consistent good profits from its market leadership position in homestaging. The new owner will assist homeowners, developers and real estate agents, optimising the potential of properties by showcasing them at their best. If you combine design flair and capability with commercial acumen and good people skills, this is your opportunity. This well established Auckland business leads in merchandise rental for homestaging. Its extensive, high quality inventory has a replacement value approaching $3.8 million allowing a considerable number of simultaneous installations. The current owner is retiring. An experienced staff team and a top marketplace reputation means this opportunity is ready to thrive and further grow in your hands.
